ANTOINETTE MAUREEN MARIS

Celebrating and Honoring her Life

Antoinette's Loving Journey

Antoinette Maureen Maris a loving Mother, grandmother, life partner, sister and friend was born January 25th 1972 in Berkeley, California to Simone and Rodney Booker. She was later adopted and raised by loving parent Margo and Richard Maris of Minneapolis, MN where she grew up and attended Heritage Academy High. While there she met one of the loves of her life Donald Lowman, they went on to bear a beautiful son Gage Richard Lowman. In 2010 Antoinette known by people who loved her as simply "Toni" moved to Las Vegas, NV to start a new life with her life partner Felicia Taylor who she spent the rest of her life growing in love with. Toni had a child like love for life; besides her family she had a great love for collecting dolls and also her three dogs "whisper", "Candy", and "Powder".

Toni was preceded in death by her birth father Rodney Booker and gifted father Richard Maris. To cherish her memories, Toni leaves behind one devoted son Gage Lowman of Las Vegas, NV. her grandchildren Sandra Lowman, and Chase Lowman of Las Vegas, NV., the love of her life Felicia Taylor of Las Vegas, NV., and her only sibling Monique Davis of Vallejo, CA
