Bradley has a wonderful future ahead. Because he, like all those already asleep in the grave will be brought back to life, resurrected. A broad swiping promise was made by Jesus in the book of John. It says that all those in memorial tombs and graves will come to life again here with us. Many are familiar with the words at John 3:16 where it refers to Jesus spoke of everlasting life be a promise to come. Mankind will see the realization of that under the rule of God's kingdom. Bradley will wake up to a quality of life unparalleled. Sickness, pain, sorrow and death will be no more. Bradley will have the opportunity to live forever. It will be a good day.
