Dan was born on June 24, 1956 in Neillsville, WI. He was the 10th of 16 children of the late Robert & Helen (Kutchera) Hoffman. Dan grew up in the Osseo - Fairchild area where he graduated from high school in 1974. He married Susan Anderson in 1976 and began farming the Hoffman home farm in the Fairchild area. The couple had 4 children and later divorced. Dan continued farming and met Susan Finkel whom he later married. The couple moved to New London in 1995 and to their current residence in 1999 where they have lived since. Locally, Dan worked for a few farms before taking a job with MCC and later Carew, but his self proclaimed favorite job was driving truck for Dairyland Chopping in Weyauwega. Most of Dan's hobbies involved going fast. It didn't matter if he was on a motorcycle, snowmobile, go-kart, or in his car; he was always racing something. Dan also enjoyed listening to music, eating ice cream, sitting on his porch, woodworking, & everything the outdoors had to offer. He took a lot of pride in building his own cabin from the trees he cut down on his property near Fairchild. Most of all, he loved his children & grandchildren and always looked forward to their visits. Survivors include: His wife: Susan. Children: Sheila (Jason) Wild, Medford;
