JON MAURICE LOTT

Jon Maurice Lott, 78, Carlsbad, New Mexico, passed away on October 17, 2016 after a lengthy illness at the Lea Regional Hospital in Hobbs, New Mexico. Jon was born on October 10, 1938, to Helen and Maurice Lott of Racine, Ohio, where he grew up and graduated from Racine High School. He attended Ohio State University while he worked at Battelle Memorial Institute in Columbus, Ohio, before beginning his 33-year career with Westinghouse Electric Corporation. During his career with Westinghouse he worked in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Jacksonville, Florida; Los Alamos, New Mexico; Richland, Washington; and for 10 years at the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in Carlsbad, New Mexico before his retirement in 1996. Jon enjoyed working on fast cars, driving fast cars, and built a car for drag racing. He also enjoyed spending weekends in the mountains in Weed, New Mexico. Jon was a fan of shooting muzzle loader guns and attended several mountain man rendezvous. Jon is survived by his wife of 56 years, Sheila; three children: Michael and his wife, Jill of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Glenn and his wife, Susan of San Clemente, California and Michele Lott and two grandsons: Bryan and Erik Feigum of Billings, Montana. He was preceded in death by his parents. Cremation has taken place and, in accordance with his wishes, there will be no memorial services. Denton-Wood Funeral
