DEBORAH WYNNE

LYMAN - Deborah (Debbie Mains) Lee Wynne, age 61, died peacefully at home on Dec. 8.

Debbie was born on Jan. 12, 1954, in Salem, Massachusetts, to Constance (Brochu) and James Deland. Debbie graduated from Salem High School before moving to Maine. She worked for Hannaford and then became a dispatcher for York County Sheriff 's Office for 12 years before retiring due to ill health. Debbie was a firefighter EMT for Goodwins Mills Fire Department, and she was their first intermediate EMT.

Debbie enjoyed motorcycling, especially toy runs and rides to cheer sick children with BWAH. She adored her pets and loved her house that her son designed and built with his own hands.

Debbie is survived by: husband, Paul of Lyman; mother of Beverly, Massachusetts; brother, Jamie of Klamath, California; son, Jeff Mains of Kennebunk; daughter, Jamie Mains of New York; four grandchildren; one greatgranddaughter; and the Lords Lane Crew.

A graveside service will be held on Friday Dec. 11, at 1 p.m. at Goodwins Mills Village Cemetery. A gathering will be held at Debbie's home on Sunday at noon.

Arrangements are with Chad E. Poitras Cremation and Funeral Service, Buxton. Online condolence messages can be submitted at www.mainefuneral.com.
